A vote was taken and the council approved the amount of $50,000 from the ARP Supplemental Account to be moved to a 6 month interest bearing account with a rate of 3.2 per cent. Andy Hawickhorst will check with the bank about the details of this investment.

Robin Reagan attended the meeting to promote and explain “The Great Indy Cleanup”. She hopes to increase the number of volunteers this year. The event will have a dumpster located in the driveway of John Kincaid which will only be used by the volunteers for the trash pick up. A flyer and/or email will announce the July 8, 2023 date. The cleanup will be 9am to 12pm.

Juana Johnson presented the details for “The Jazz Roots Indy Festival” which will be on August 6, 2023 at the Fitness Farm from 1pm to 7 pm.

It was approved to have David Strahl cut down two small dead trees in the Bird Sanctuary. Sue Rice will have him sign a notice that in case of injury that Wynnedale will not be held responsible.

The council members and two new neighbors running for office in the November election are completing their paperwork that is to be delivered to the election board. Sue Rice will deliver the forms with the help of driver Bruce Ranger.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00pm
